Designed for Any Guest List

Whether your event hosts an intimate group or a large gathering, the experience is designed so every guest feels involved. Larger groups enjoy the mystery across multiple tables, creating pockets of intrigue, laughter, and friendly rivalry throughout the room.

Which Murder Mystery Should I Choose?

Not sure where to start? That is normal. Many clients choose based on mood rather than theme, and every option is designed to be inclusive and guided on the night. The right mystery depends on who your guests are and how you want the night to feel.

Use the guide below to narrow it down.

If Your Guests Are Corporate or Professional

Choose mysteries that feel polished, clever, and inclusive:

- A Noble Scandal
- Fraud Most Foul
- Murder on Safari
- The Big Apple: Shaken Not Stirred
- The Unusual Suspects

These encourage collaboration and conversation without making anyone uncomfortable.

If Your Event Is a Celebration or Party

Choose playful, high-energy experiences:

- A Recipe for Murder
- An Electrifying Performance
- Death of a High School Cheerleader
- No Parley for the Dead
- Last Flight of the Pink Swan

Perfect for birthdays, year-end functions, and milestone celebrations.

If Your Guests Love Drama and Theatre

Lean into bold, immersive storytelling:

- Asylum of Murder
- On a Slippery Soap
- The Masked Massacre
- Who Killed Fifi Fatale?
- Taking Out the (Trailer) Trash

Best for groups who enjoy character, tension, and big reveals.

If You Want a Safe Crowd-Pleaser

When in doubt, these consistently land well:

- A Noble Scandal
- Murder on Safari
- The Haunted Masquerade
- A Recipe for Murder

Still Unsure?

That is part of the fun.

Share your top three choices with your event partner and let us guide you toward the mystery that best suits your guests, your event, and the kind of night you want people to remember.
